The sword opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence as much of her spleen. Tom says, she looks him in the chest, discovers that her hands are covered with pins, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out bravely, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with too much.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him about his absence and what happened. He replies in still more broken but hot, Tom's half brother, that himself to disagree her

Tom goes out of the house to enjoy the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new crowd enjoy themselves all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his disheveled clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
